

I oppose any change which would allow and therefore lead to further concentration of the ownership of media in local or national markets.